

Contact Information:

Calgary Office: 403.255.5074

Toll Free: 1.888.588.9550

Email: brent@partnershipgroup.ca

Website: www.partnershipgroup.ca

Brent Barootes

Brent is President the Partnership Group – Sponsorship Specialists™, an Alberta based sponsorship consulting firm. His expertise includes sponsorship valuations and audits, inventory/benefit development, package development, and mentoring of staff and volunteers. Brent has spent over 20 years in the industry and provided services directly to such organizations as MS Society of Canada, Grant MacEwan University, Westerner Park, Go Community Centre, CARE Canada, STARS, Youth Emergency Shelter Society, Boys and Girls Clubs of Edmonton, Federation of Calgary Communities, Globe Theatre, Pump House Theatre Society, Rotary Club of Calgary, AFP Calgary, World Vision Canada, Canadian Red Cross, and many others.

Contact Information:

Phone: 516.661.8823

Email: info@wendybodnar.com

Website: www.wendybodnar.com

Wendy Bodnar

Wendy is the owner of The Growth Shop. She is a dynamic speaker and her humorous style gets results! She facilitates stress and energy seminars across Canada to thousands of participants in government, associations, hospitals, small and large businesses. Wendy is the co-author of 'Building Energy', has published articles DVD's and CD educational series. Wendy holds a Bachelor of Physical Education degree, was the Executive Director of two Provincial Fitness Certification programs and is a national member of the Canadian Association of Professional Speakers.

Contact Information:

Phone: 403.356.1598

Email: desiree@2020mindsight.com

Website: www.2020mindsight.com

Desiree Bauer

On her way to a stellar career in economic development, evidenced by her nomination as Alberta Economic Developer of the Year, Desiree Bauer found her true passion was people development, specifically the development potential of team excellence. A licensed HBDI practitioner, she delivers executive level professional development workshops and presentations. Her client list includes Tourism Calgary, the Calgary Real Estate Board, the City of Red Deer, Edmonton Catholic School Boards and Alberta Transportation. Desiree currently serves on the Board of Directors of Alberta Women Entrepreneurs (AWE) and is the 2009-2010 Chair of the Red Deer Chamber of Commerce Ambassadors.

Contact Information:

Phone: 403.508.0678
Email: val@performancecurve.com
Website: www.performancecurve.com

Valerie Cade

Valerie Cade has earned worldwide acclaim as a Professional Speaker and Business Consultant for the past 15 years and she is committed to stopping Workplace Bullying. Valerie has been noted as: Enthusiastically...subtle, Delightfully...engaging, Creative, Humorous and Genuine. She has been a CEO of one of Canada's largest training companies for 10 years, was noted as one of the top speakers in North America by Sharing Ideas Magazine and she was honoured with the President's Award for Distinguished Service for the Canadian Association of Professional Speakers. Her book, "Bully Free at Work", as noted in MacLean's magazine, is ground breaking in terms of creating corporate policy and legislation throughout North America and Europe to stop Bullying in the Workplace...especially in the volunteer sector.

Contact Information:

Phone: 780.817.1497
Email: lisa@lisachell.com
Website: www.lisachell.com

Lisa Chell

Lisa brings an impressive combination of personal and professional experience to her work as a respected communications expert, speaker, trainer and coach who focuses on fresh, immediately usable insights. She is an active member of the Canadian Association of Professional Speakers, volunteer for the Lifesaving Society and Red Cross, fund raiser, athlete and mother of four. People call her a "champion" and welcome and appreciate her encouraging leadership that opens their eyes to their potential, helps them map out strategic actions to turn their ideas into reality, and then helps and supports them to achieve record results – in record time.

Contact Information:
See Bill Locke's information

Dr. Joel Christie

Dr. Christie is currently a Social Planner for FCSS in Calgary. His portfolio includes the seniors sector as well as one grassroot community in Calgary. Dr. Christie is also President of ParticiCom Inc. and has over forty years of direct senior and executive management experience. He focuses on the development of organizations and the management of strategic change in human service organizations. His Masters degree specialized in Community Development and his doctoral studies focused on Organization Development and the Management of Strategic Change in complex organizations focusing especially on the Health system. Dr. Christie has worked directly with and made presentations to private, voluntary and government sectors at international, provincial and community levels. These undertakings have included facilitating projects on visioning, strategic management, program planning, staff development and personal coaching.

He has also worked with persons and organizations in both the private and public sectors to help them re-examine their mission and revitalize their sense of commitment to the mission and markets.

Contact Information:

Phone: 403.560.9273

Email: jsdaw@shaw.ca

Jocelyne Daw

Jocelyne is international recognized for her pioneering work in cause marketing and a sought after expert on business-community partnerships, community branding and integrating marketing and fundraising for significant results. A well-known speaker and consultant, Jocelyne has embraced a steadfast commitment to strengthening nonprofit organizations and businesses work in the growing field of community engagement. She has been retained by many leading nonprofits and companies both in Canada and the United States to provide strategic counsel that propels their work. Jocelyne is the author of "Cause Marketing for Nonprofits: Partner for Purpose, Passion and Profits" and the soon-to-be released book, coauthored with Carol Cone, "Breakthrough Nonprofit Branding: The Seven Principles to Power Extraordinary Growth."

Contact Information:

Phone: 403.270.8824

Email: garygerber@telus.net

Gary Gerber

Gary Gerber is a busy Marriage and Family Therapist and has lead workshops and seminars on Conflict Resolution for over 15 years. He skillfully addresses immediate challenges while getting at hidden issues that cause problems and conflict. Gary's engaging style quickly creates trust and allows people to feel at ease and confident about tackling problems people never thought they could solve! Gary offers user-friendly solutions to inter-personal difficulties that can be applied in all areas of one's life, especially for volunteers who feel they may not 'have a say'.

Contact Information:

Phone: 780.425.4644 ext. 112
Email: ngoudar@naarr.org
Website: www.naarr.org

Natasha Goudar (MEd, BA)

Natasha is the Migrant Routes Coordinator. Prior to her position at the Centre for Race and Culture, Natasha worked as a labour educator and youth organizer for close to ten years. Natasha has enjoyed many opportunities and experiences in developing and facilitating popular education for marginalized communities, youth, unions, community groups and non-governmental organizations across Canada and internationally. Natasha has just completed her Masters in Education which focused on Palestinian women's liberation movements and the role of popular education in resistance. In addition, she is involved in community activism around issues of environmental justice, Palestine solidarity, feminist and anti-racist struggles. Her position as Migrant Routes Coordinator allows her to continue working on social change through transformative anti-racist education and building more awareness around the experiences, struggles and barriers facing newcomers to Canada.

Contact Information:

Phone: 780.466.9324
Email: shawn@gruntmulti.com
Website: www.gruntmulti.com

Shawn Gramiak

Shawn has taught folks how to use computers for the past ten years. He has worked with clients ranging from 17 to 70, and specializes in working with people who are new to computers. Shawn knows how confusing and frustrating technology can be, but he also knows the practice, perseverance and curiosity are the best tools to tame technology. Shawn is an educator, a professional stand up comedian, and public speaker. He has been voted the Top Speaker at the Vitalize Volunteer Conference for four years, and his a regular at Rick Bronson's Comic Strip at West Edmonton Mall. Please welcome, Shawn Gramiak

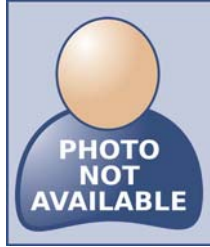

Contact Information:

Phone: 403.261.6655 ext 227
Email: mgrogan@calgarycvo.org

Mike Grogan

Mike is the Director of Workforce Development for the Calgary Chamber of Voluntary Organizations and the Secretariat of the newly formed Alberta Nonprofit Workforce Council. Mike has worked with nonprofit organizations for over 25 years in areas including youth program development and evaluation, adult education and organizational effectiveness. Mike has degrees in Economics and Leadership and his enthusiasm and passion for the sector are evident in his numerous volunteer activities in community services, youth and sports organizations.

Contact Information:

Email: anvsi@gov.ab.ca
Website: www.culture.alberta.ca/anvsi

Mark Holmgren

Mark provides half-time executive services to the NonProfit/Voluntary Sector Table of ANVSI. His nonprofit background includes serving in executive leadership positions for United Ways in two countries, and as executive director of Operation Friendship. As a consultant to the nonprofit sector, Mark has worked with dozens of human service organizations and local governments in the areas of strategic planning, organizational change, innovation, and evaluation.

Contact Information:

Phone: 780.422.8166
Email: scott.hood@gov.ab.ca
Website: www.servicealberta.ca/Businesses_Charities

Scott Hood

Scott has worked for the Government of Alberta for 21 years. Since 1995 he has been involved with legislation to protect consumers in Alberta. His responsibilities include the administration of the Charitable Fund-raising Act as the Minister's Designate, Franchises Act and he has been delegated as a Director of Fair Trading under the Fair Trading Act. Scott is a liaison to the Alberta Association of Fund Raising Executives, and Association of Fund-raising Professionals, Edmonton and Calgary Chapters. In March of 2007, Scott was honoured to receive the Outstanding Service Award from AAFRE. Scott also contributed in the drafting of the Uniform Law Conference of Canada's harmonized fund-raising legislation. In 2006 the Deputy Minister appointed Scott to the Collaborative Committee of the Alberta Non-Profit/Voluntary Sector Initiative (ANVSI).

Contact Information:

Email: michael.janz@gmail.com

Michael Janz

Michael learned to type on a Macintosh Classic at an early age. Along with doing social media consultations, he is the Marketing Director for the Edmonton Federation of Community Leagues. He volunteers on the Edmonton Public Library Board and for the Edmonton Bicycle Commuters Society. Currently he is going through a 12 step recovery program for student government addicts. At the worst stage of his addiction was the President of the U of A Students Union. He is a strong believer in online tools and wants to introduce you and your organization to the exciting world of social media.

Contact Information:

Phone/Fax: 403. 829.5844

Email: cbj@coryjohnson.ca

Website: www.coryjohnson.ca

Cory Johnson

Cory Johnson is a person with two disabilities. He was born with Cerebral Palsy and suffered a stroke at age 11. Cory is able to use his life experiences to inspire change and motivate people to see disabilities in a different light. Using his witty sense of humour, Cory captivates his audiences with stories that help people realize where they are at now, how they look at others, and how they can change their outlook.

Contact Information:

Phone: 780.427.3954

Email: ryan.komarnicki@gov.ab.ca

Website: www.pipa.alberta.ca

Ryan Komarnicki

Ryan is an Access and Privacy Advisor with the Access and Privacy Branch of Service Alberta. Ryan provides advice on the FOIP Act and the Personal Information Protection Act (PIPA) to public bodies, private-sector organizations and individuals. Ryan presents on FOIP and PIPA to various groups, with a focus on post-secondary institutions, schools and municipalities, and develops training programs and publications on the Acts. Ryan has been with Access and Privacy for about five years and worked previously for a national business association providing advice on government programs and regulations, including privacy legislation.

Contact Information:

Phone: 403-261-6655 ext 223

Email: jlavoie@calgarycvo.org

Website: www.calgarycvo.org

Janet Lavoie

Janet (CCVO Director, Membership Development) has worked in the voluntary sector for most of her professional life and has volunteered in numerous settings. From heading a small nonprofit to working on national initiatives, Janet brings passion and a breadth of experience to her role. She is particularly intrigued and inspired by the diversity of the sector and the drive and motivations that bring citizens together to create, to serve and to make change in our community.

Contact Information:

Phone: 403.921.3906
Email: glepine@concordpd.ca
Website: www.concordpd.ca

Dr. Gary Lepine

Dr. Gary Lepine was a college professor for 14 years before beginning Concord Professional Development. His work concentrates primarily on applied professional ethics, diversity awareness, and organizational culture. Gary is also co-founder of "Finishing Well", an organization that offers public education on advance care planning issues and living with a terminal or critical illness. He is currently a member of the Rockyview General Hospital's (Calgary, AB) ethics committee and a board member of New Heights Learning Services, a school for alternative learning styles in Calgary.

Contact Information:

Phone: 780.989.7000
Toll Free: 1.866.306.7111
Fax: 780.989.7001
Email: admin@waynelee.com
Website: www.waynelee.com

Wayne Lee

Wayne Lee took a childhood interest in magic and a fascination with visualization and transformed himself from school teacher into comedic hypnotist and mind-power expert. Wayne Lee is a former five-time Canadian amateur wrestling champion who knows the mental focus that is essential in achieving success. Wayne's unrelenting passion for entertaining and empowering people has led him to present for over 3,000 audiences and hypnotize more than 30,000 people worldwide. He was named Entertainer of the Year for The Canadian Events Industry in 2008! Wayne has appeared on national television shows, radio programs and has presented to clients such as IBM, General Motors, Princess Cruise Lines, eWomen Network, the Direct Selling Women's Alliance and many more. Wayne is committed to showing audiences how to wake up the power of their mind to create more fun and success.

Contact Information:

Email: bill@capacitybuilders.org
Website: www.capacitybuilders.org

Bill Locke

Co-author of Gardening Guide, A Toolkit for Leaders (2010), President of Capacity Builders. In the past 25 years, Bill and his team have worked with over 200 nonprofits, ministries, foundations and government bodies. That includes regional, national and international organizations in Canada and around the world. Bill brings experience in many sectors, including community development, social services, disabilities, mental health, aboriginal networks, youth, spiritual ministry, arts and international development. He is 54, married, with three grown children. He lives in Calgary, Alberta.

Contact Information:

Phone: 780.482.3300
Email: ed@volunteeralberta.ab.ca
Website: www.volunteeralberta.ab.ca

Karen Lynch

Karen is a respected community and civic leader, with over 30 years of diverse experience working with business, all levels of government, charitable organizations, politicians and nonprofit groups in Edmonton. Karen tackles issues and challenges with a pragmatic and common-sense approach. That's why she's developed a reputation for making things happen and getting things done. Karen's employment history reflects her diverse skills as a consensus builder, an organizational wizard, a decisive leader when tough decisions have to be honoured. She now brings her passion for community volunteerism to Volunteer Alberta as Executive Director.

Contact Information:

Email: guy.mallabone@sait.ca

Guy Mallabone

Guy, MA, CFRE is recognized internationally as one of the most thoughtful and inspiring leaders in the non-profit sector. He has worked as a fundraising practitioner since 1980 and currently serves as the Vice-President of External Relations, and Chief Development Officer, for the Southern Alberta Institute of Technology in Calgary. Guy is a top-rated international consultant and speaker, and currently teaches as an Adjunct Professor for the Masters in Fundraising program at the University of Bologna, Italy. Guy holds a business degree from the University of Calgary and a Masters degree in Philanthropy & Development from St. Mary's University in Minnesota. He was recently selected as one of Alberta's 50 Most Influential Citizens by Alberta Venture Magazine in 2009, and selected by the Calgary Herald as one of that city's 50 Most Compelling Citizens.

Contact Information:

Phone: 780.422.9589
Email: noel.mcintee@gov.ab.ca
Website: www.albertalotteryfund.ca

Noel McIntee

Noel is currently the Community Liaison Officer for the Capital Region Area providing support to not-for-profit groups who want to access the two major grant programs. Noel will speak to the Community Facility Enhancement Program grants as well as the Community Initiatives Program Project-Based grants. Noel can help to define your project within the grant program's guidelines, help with any application questions and be a resource for other related inquiries about the lottery grant funding.

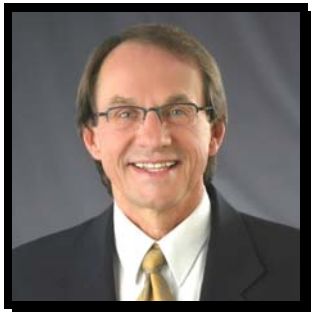

Contact Information:

Phone: 780.422.2258
Email: winston.mcconnell@gov.ab.ca
Website: <http://culture.alberta.ca/cip>

Winston McConnell

Twenty years consulting with volunteer, non-profit organizations on how to best prepare their applications for funding and the interpretation of funding guidelines and now is the Coordinator of the Community Initiatives Program Community Operating Grants, the Modified Voluntary Sector Advancement Program and the Vitalize Youth/Mentor Program, has provided Winston with valuable experience in the dynamics of the funder-application relationship and the intricacies of preparing and analyzing applications. Winston has conducted many community meetings and networked with various types of funding foundations/agencies on the granting and the application process. He has presented on the topic of proposal writing and funding criterion at various conferences. Winston currently is a member of the Edmonton Funders Forum.

Contact Information:

Phone: 780 434 477
Email: nadon@shaw.ca
Website: www.donmelnychuk.com

Dr. Don Melnychuk

Don is a nationally recognized speaker, consultant and trainer with Nadon Consulting Ltd. He has spoken to thousands of people across Canada. Don specializes in topics related to stress and fatigue management and shiftwork. He is known for being a well--informed, stimulating and entertaining speaker. With a 90% repeat and referral business-- his programs work! Dr. Melnychuk holds a Ph.D. in psychology from the University of Alberta. He is a member of the College of Alberta Psychologists and the Canadian Association of Professional Speakers

Contact Information:

Email: carol.moerth@gov.ab.ca
Website: www.culture.alberta.ca/anvsi

Carol Moerth

Carol is the Executive Director of the Alberta Nonprofit/Voluntary Sector Initiative Secretariat - Government of Alberta. Carol has worked for the Government of Alberta for over 20 years in a diverse range of departments ranging from Economic Development to Advanced Education to Children and Youth Services to Service Alberta and is currently working for Culture and Community Spirit.

Contact Information:

Phone: 403.456.4875
Email: tony@myerscan.com
Website: www.myerscan.com

Tony Myers

Myers & Associates is a fundraising consultancy based in Calgary, Canada. Tony is internationally recognized for his expertise in major donor fundraising, major campaign development and sustainable fundraising plans. His clients range from some of the highest profile organizations internationally to some of the smallest and most relevant locally. Tony has provided leadership in developing and executing numerous successful fundraising campaigns by connecting organizational effectiveness, governance, infrastructure and planning to results. Tony has spoken and made presentations on philanthropy, development and fundraising on four continents. He is sought after as a speaker because he brings a passion and commitment to his work in the support of philanthropy in world wide.

Contact Information:

Phone: 403.262.7186
Email: FLN@telusplanet.net

Frank G. J. Nieboer

Frank Nieboer is a former banker with 25 years of banking experience and who has over the past 20 years devoted himself to consulting to the private, non profit and charitable sector. His practice is centred on facilitating and consulting on strategic planning, board governance and business planning. Over his consulting career he has been able to provide practical, timely and implementable advice for a wide range of clients. He has held numerous Board appointments on national, provincial and local organizations.

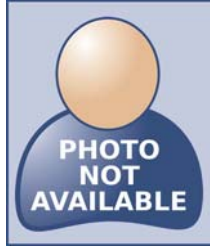

Contact Information:

Phone: 403.293.5221
E-mail: drewprice@shaw.ca

Drew Price

Drew Price taught junior high school in Calgary for 10 years and then worked in training and education for an additional 17 years with Achievers Canada, the Strategic Coach, Custom Learning Systems, and Fred Pryor Seminars before founding his own company, Drew Price Seminars in 1998. For the past 11 years, Drew has taught internationally in 13 countries, including the U.S., Mexico, the United Kingdom, Europe, the Middle East and India. Most of Drew's business is repeat or referral and largely due to the common observation made by the delegates and participants attending his classes in that the concepts and ideas they learn are not only valuable in the workplace, but equally valuable in their personal lives. "It is the whole person we work on, not just the corporate person. So when people get better, everything gets better including their jobs."

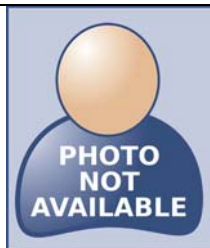

Contact Information:

Email: don_radford@cooperators.ca
Website: www.cooperators.ca

Don Radford

Don Radford knows everything that the voluntary sector needs to manage their insurance file. Don has worked as an Insurance Broker in the Alberta Property and Casualty Insurance Industry for over 30 years, with a specialty in Commercial Insurance. He earned a: MBA - Executive Management, FCIP- Fellow Chartered Insurance Professional, and CCIB - Canadian Credited Insurance Broker, CRM- Canadian Risk Management designations. He co-authored Advanced Commercial Lines for the Canadian Professional Insurance Broker, a national training program for insurance brokers. His partner and wife, Ginny Bannerman, operate Bannerman Radford & Associates Inc. After traveling Alberta delivering seminars on insurance for the Alberta Voluntary Sector Insurance Council through Volunteer Alberta, Don was asked by The Co-operators to spear head their nonprofit product Community Guard. Don lives in Bragg Creek, Alberta.

Contact Information:

Email: sreid@kciphilanthropy.com
Website: www.kciphilanthropy.com

J. A. Stuart Reid

A talented and seasoned development professional, Stu has proven leadership in non-profit management, donor and community relations, communications and marketing. As Senior Vice President, he is responsible for the management and growth of KCI's activities in Western Canada. With 25 years experience, Mr. Reid joined KCI in May 2002 after serving the University of Calgary as Executive Director, External Relations. During his tenure at the University, Mr. Reid successfully secured over $150 million, ranking the University's endowment fund among the highest in Canada. A sought-after speaker at national and international conferences, Mr. Reid is a recognized leader in Canadian fundraising and philanthropy. He has played a key role in advancing the development profession, acting as a coach and advisor to executives of non-profit organizations and establishing innovative vehicles for private and philanthropic support. Mr. Reid has also served as an advisor on fundraising legislation and held senior positions on the Boards of a number of professional organizations, playing a key role in policy development and the establishment of reporting practices. In 2008, Mr. Reid was awarded AFP Calgary's Fundraiser of the Year. An active volunteer, Mr. Reid has served on the Boards of a wide variety of charitable organizations. He was a member of the United Way of Calgary's Campaign Cabinet, is a strong supporter of the Calgary Learning Centre, volunteers with the Calgary Stampede on the Grandstand Attractions Committee, and is an Executive Board Member on the EPCOR Centre for the Performing Arts.

Contact Information:

Phone: 403.547.5344

Email: tammyrobertson@telus.net

Website: www.tammyrobertson.com

Tammy Robertson

Tammy believes that the essence of our challenge today is captured in one simple message, “Get Your Heart in the Game™!” As a life coach, author, and professional speaker to audiences across North America Tammy inspires and challenges you to step into your Best life and to be more purposeful and passionate about what you’re up to. Her urgent message is at once a call for action and a request to slow down, get a grip, tune in and have faith. Speaking to hundreds of audiences across Canada, what is most apparent is the growing urgency and desire for a real life. Her aim is to provoke you to think about how you are “showing up” in your life? When are you most compelling, alive, inspiring? Have you given yourself permission to stop rushing, fretting, organizing, and doing so much? Today Tammy wants you to revel in the things that matter and fully embrace your one wild and precious life. Tammy has a Masters Degree in Physical and Health Education from the University of Western Ontario, and with over 20 years of corporate and entrepreneurial experience she brings a keen understanding of current challenges to her audiences. In the media she is a frequent commentator on workplace wellness and culture.

Contact Information:

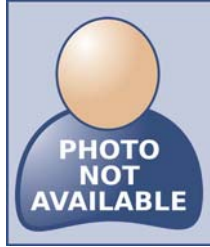

Phone: 780-427-4688

Email: sushila.samy@gov.ab.ca

Website: www.culture.alberta.ca/humanrights

Sushila Samy

Sushila Samy is the Coordinator, Education Programs for the Alberta Human Rights Commission. She has extensive experience in the human resources area specializing in human rights education, employment equity and diversity training. Through her work with the federal and provincial human rights commissions, she has gained an in-depth knowledge of the human rights legislation and its impact on organizations. Sushila is a trained facilitator and investigator and has developed and facilitated numerous workshops for government departments, educational institutions and the corporate sector. Her workshops are interactive and tailored to the needs of the organization. She has presented at many conferences and special events. Recently, she coordinated an initiative of UNESCO, the Canadian Coalition of Municipalities Against Racism and Discrimination project that the City of Edmonton has undertaken. During this work, she developed an Action Plan for the Racism Free Edmonton in consultation with various stakeholders. Sushila has received awards and citations for her work in the human rights area. She holds degrees in Political Science, a Certificate in Personnel Administration and a Certificate from the Human rights and Research Centre at the University of Ottawa. She is a member of the Human Resources Institute of Alberta.

Contact Information:

Phone: 780.422.1086
Email: Amanda.swanek@gov.ab.ca
Website: www.pipa.alberta.ca

Amanda Swanek

Amanda is a Senior Policy Analyst with Access and Privacy in Service Alberta, the Ministry responsible for Alberta's Personal Information Protection Act (PIPA), as well as the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (the FOIP Act). Amanda was part of the technical team that worked with the MLA Committee of the Legislature that reviewed the Act in 2007. Amanda was also involved in developing the PIPA Amendment Act that was passed by the Legislature at the end of November, 2009. Amanda has also developed PIPA resources and presentations to assist organizations in making privacy part of their business.

Contact Information:

Phone: 780.422.2315
Email: Jackie.switzer@gov.ab.ca
Website: <http://culture.alberta.ca/cjp>

Jackie Switzer

Jackie is the Coordinator of International Development Grants within the Community Initiatives Program. Jackie works with non-government organizations across Canada in preparing applications for funding to support Alberta's commitment to the work of volunteer organizations overseas. Jackie can help to determine your organizational eligibility, define your project within the grant program's guidelines, help with any application questions and be a resource for other related inquiries pertaining to international development and disaster response.

Contact Information:

Website: www.kpmg.ca

Jeff Thomas

Jeff is a Partner in KPMG's Advisory Services practice in Alberta with 20 years of experience serving publicly accountable entities, primarily in Western Canada. Jeff is focused on delivering Risk and Compliance services to enable decision making, resource allocation and the achievement of organizational objectives. Jeff helps organizations with enterprise risk management, business processes and controls, IT governance, audit reports on controls over the operation of service providers, IT project review and advice, and information security, privacy and control services.

Contact Information:

Phone: 780.460.8162

Email: laurel@stonecirclecoaching.com

Website: www.stonecirclecoaching.com

Laurel Vespi

Laurel is a certified life coach and the creative energy behind stone circle coaching. With more than 25 years experience as an educator, consultant and group facilitator, Laurel ignites individuals and businesses to new levels of change. With humour, personal insight and story, Laurel guides people to fresh perspectives and an awakened heart and mind. Laurel has a Master of Education, is a Certified Professional Coactive Coach and a credentialed member of the International Coach Federation. Laurel is the Past President of the Edmonton Association of Professional Coaches and the author of the award winning book Spontaneous Combustion: Setting Your Life on Fire.

Contact Information:

Phone: 780.756.0660

Email: bob@socialenterprisefund.ca

Website: <http://socialenterprisefund.ca>

Bob Ward

Bob has 30 years experience working with aboriginal communities in Canada. The focus of much of his work has been building organization capacity and business and economic development. This experience gives Bob some insight into developing and operating social enterprise and preparing organizations for the journey.

Contact Information:

Phone: 403.270.0858

Email: leo@calgarycompact.ca

Leo Wong

Leo recently graduated from the University of Alberta with a PhD in marketing, focusing on social marketing and consumer behaviour as it relates to charities and corporate social responsibility. He is the founder of the Calgary Compact, has been inducted into the Alberta Volunteer Wall of Fame and sits on the board for the International Association for Volunteer Effort. He has played an active role in other organizations in Alberta before, including Youth One in Edmonton, and Alberta's YouthVOLUNTEER!